

A Dinner Party.

A dinner given by Mr. Henry Furr the evening of January 12, 1906, at the home of Mr. J. Newton White was a social event and enjoyed by those present.

The table was set for fifteen covers and the menu of oysters served in different styles followed by turkey and chicken and turkey salad, celery, cranberries, potatoes, Md. biscuit, coffee and cigars.

Among those present were: Messrs. Robert Nelson, Edward S. Walker, Dudley Bird, George Brooke, Seaton Belt, J. C. Kolbe, G. A. T. Townshend, Lee Belt, John Bowie, C. A. Boise, J. Newton White, Furr White, and Thomas Chiswell of Poolsville, Md., and Thomas Wilson, of Washington, D. C.

A Dinner Party

Clipped By:
C_St_Reed
May 8, 2025